1980			EVENT	Obama's college classmate John Drew: "Obama was already an ardent Marxist when I met him in the fall of 1980. I know it's incendiary to say this, but Obama was basically a Marxist-Leninist."  ". . . At the time I met him — this was probably around Christmastime in 1980, because I had flown out during Christmas break from Cornell, where I was doing my graduate work — young Obama was looking forward to an imminent social revolution, literally a movement where the working classes would overthrow the ruling class and institute a kind of socialist utopia in the United States. I mean, that's how extreme his views were.... I was kind of more [in] the Frankfurt School of Marxism at the time. I felt like I was doing Obama a favor by pointing out that the Marxist revolution that he and [our friends] were hoping for was really kind of a pipedream.... I was still a card-carrying Marxist, but I was kind of a more advanced, East Coast, Cornell University Marxist, I think, at the time. [Obama] kind of thought I was, you know, a little reactionary... like I was kind of insensitive to the needs of the coming revolution. [Obama] was full-bore, 100% into that simpleminded Marxist, revolutionary mental framework."	https://spectator.org/comey-was-a-commie/  Excerpt from book: The Communist: Frank Marshall Davis--The Untold Story of Barack Obama's Mentor, https://www.amazon.com/Communist-Paul-Kengor/dp/1451698097/

1982	11	20	EVENT	In a letter to a then-girlfriend, Obama said: "'In regards to homosexuality, I must say that I believe this is an attempt to remove oneself from the present, a refusal, perhaps, to perpetuate the farce of earthly life. You see, I make love to men daily, but in the imagination. My mind is androgynous to a great extent, and I hope to make it more so, until I can think of people, not women as opposed to men. But returning to the body, I see that I have been made a man, and physically, in life, I choose to accept that contingency."	Letter from book, "Rising Star: The Making of Barack Obama" by David Garrow, https://www.amazon.com/Rising-Star-Making-Barack-Obama/dp/0062641832

2009	3	30	EVENT	Statement to Obama and Congress from 1,163 retired flag officers supporting the 1993 law regarding homosexuality is incompatible with military service. See page 233. "Our past experience as military leaders leads us to be greatly concerned about the impact of repeal on morale, discipline, unit cohesion, and overall military readiness. We believe that imposing this burden on our men and women in uniform would undermine recruiting and retention, impact leadership at all echelons, have adverse effects on the willingness of parents who lend their sons and daughters to military service, and eventually break the All-Volunteer Force."	https://www.af.mil/Portals/1/documents/diversity/attitudes-arent-free.pdf

William Casey said, "Our diversity, not only in our Army, but in our country, is a strength. And as horrific as this tragedy was, if our diversity becomes a casualty, I think that's worse."	https://www.reuters.com/article/us-texas-shooting-casey/army-chief-fears-backlash-for-muslim-u-s-soldiers-idUSTRE5A71AJ20091108
2009				Comment on an article: "'I was the Equal Opportunity Adviser for an Army installation in 2009. We got a new mission statement. It was called "Blueprint for the Nation". It was sold as "what the military does, the nation will follow". We removed all references to "unity" and replaced them with "diversity." We also were forbidden from saying "melting pot" and replaced it with "salad bowl". Now here we are. A nation divided. No unity. No national identity. This plan for our collapse and civil war has been long in the making. I don't believe there is a path forward for bringing back what our forefathers knew. Very sad."

2017	9	23	USMA	West Point graduate Lt. Spencer Rapone posts on his Twitter account photos of him in his cadet uniform while at his West Point May 2016 graduation ceremony wearing a red Che Guevara t-shirt and another one showing inside his cap with the words written on it, "Communism will Win" with his clenched fist. Despite this, he continued serving in the Army until June 2018 when he was sent out of the U.S. Army with an other-than-honorable discharge. The Army accepted Rapone's resignation after an earlier reprimand for "conduct unbecoming of an officer." An investigation found he went online to advocate for a socialist revolution and disparage high-ranking officers. Officially, the Army said in a statement only that it conducted a full investigation and "appropriate action was taken." An unrepentant Rapone summed up the fallout in yet another tweet that showed him extending a middle finger at a sign at the entrance to Fort Drum, accompanied by the words, "One final salute." "I consider myself a revolutionary socialist," the 26-year-old said. Rapone said his journey to communism grew out of his experiences as an Army Ranger in Afghanistan BEFORE he was accepted into the U.S. Military Academy. Even while still a cadet, Rapone's online postings alarmed a West Point history professor, who wrote Rapone up, saying his online postings were "red flags that cannot be ignored." Rapone was disciplined but still allowed to graduate.	https://apnews.com/article/57a1fd1e2df84cfdb2fc51375815444f
